

More AUMC Opportunities

Habitat for Humanity 2010 - Townhome Community build is underway at I-25 and Colorado Blvd. Jeffco Partners began construction of the townhome for the Mwenebitu family at 4350 E. Bails (near I-25 and Colorado Blvd.) Rev. Valerie represented AUMC in the site blessing ceremony. We still need one person to work with us on Saturday, March 20. For information on how to volunteer, contact Alan or Carolyn Williams at 303-422-6623, arwilliams6@comcast.net, or see the Habitat display in the Center. Monetary donations are always welcome.

Habitat Build in Rifle Needs a Few Extra Hands: Applewood Valley UMC is looking for volunteers to join a team headed to Rifle, Colorado, April 26 - 30 to work on a Habitat for Humanity build there. The group going will stay in a nearby motel at a rate of $35 a night. Lunch is provided at the build site, but participants would need to cover the cost of breakfast and dinner. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Larry Knapp at Applewood Valley UMC by email, lknapp47@msn.com, or phone 303-807-2628. He needs to know who is going by March 8.

African Celebration, March 9: The Africa Partnership of the Rocky Mountain Conference is partnering with the Metro State College Denver African Student Union and SAFI (Support Africa Empowerment Foundation International) to host an African celebration fundraising event, Tuesday, March 9, 7-10 pm at Turnhalle in the Tivoli Center on the Metro State College Auraria Campus. Funds raised during the event will support UM mission projects in Kenya, Angola, and the northern province of Sierra Leone. The celebration will include African cuisine, African music, crafts, silent auction and fashion. Tickets are $25 and $9 for students. Contact Sue Clasen at 303-277-1774 for tickets.

Immigration Reform: Finding common ground on immigration reform is the topic for this Wednesday evening's Public Policy Forum at Temple Sinai. The moderator Kenneth H. Stern, an immigration attorney, will begin the discussion at 7 pm in the 3509 S. Glencoe St. temple. The Interfaith Alliance of Colorado sponsors the discussion of a recent University of Denver strategic issues study. Panelists include Polly Baca, former state senator; Ved P. Nanda, international law professor at DU; Julien Ross, executive director of Colorado Immigrations Rights Coalition and immigrant leader of Rights for All People. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, call 720-524-1100.
